

October 22, 2004

In Brief

Top School

Gateway Academy in Chesterfield has been named one of the top 50 secondary schools in the country, based on its commitment to academic excellence, Catholic identity and civic education. Gateway is a private school administered by the Legionaries of Christ serving boys and girls in pre-kindergarten through 12th grade. The school was recognized by the Catholic High School Honor Roll, an independent project of the Acton Institute for the Study of Religion and Liberty.